Mini Movie Fest: Pangea Day at DOM

Mini Movie Fest (MMF) is an event for screening a selection of Mini Movies before a live audience. A Mini Movie is a short, low quality digital film clip taken with a digital still camera, videophone, or PDA.

The Pangea Day Mission & Purpose

Pangea Day is a global event bringing the world together through film. Why? In a world where people are often divided by borders, difference, and conflict, it's easy to lose sight of what we all have in common. Pangea Day seeks to overcome that – to help people see themselves in others – through the power of film.

Deadline for Submissions: May 10, 2008 | Event: May 10, 2008 1–5pm at Denver Open Media

Project Description

This presentation of MMF is thematic and assignment based. Prior to a screening as part of Pangea Day hosted at Denver Open Media (DOM) on May 10, 2008, Hideous is placing a public call for participation.

This public call asks participants to make Mini Movies in response to series of proposed questions related to Pangea Day (see below). Participants are asked to share their Mini Movies on a dedicated video-sharing website for broadcast during Pangea Day at DOM on public access television—Comcast Channel 56 in Denver and streamed at www.denveropenmedia.org/livestream.

In addition, people are invited to interview live during the event at DOM. We will be providing an outdoor video booth at the corner of 7th and Kalamath (map) where participants are encouraged to express their views and responses to the questions posed by Pangea Day. Your response(s) will be aired live during the event on Comcast Channel 56 in Denver and streamed at www.denveropenmedia.org/livestream.

Guidelines on how to participate:

- Choose from these 2 questions and produce a short 1-3 minute (or under 100MB) video expressing your thought(s):
 - What is your notion of commonality, and how does that affect your relationship to community, society and culture?
 - How does TV and film bring us together, or pull us apart?
- Visit <http://minimoviefest.startyourtube.com> for details on how to upload and share your video online before May 10th.
- Come to Pangea Day hosted by Denver Open Media (DOM) and interview live, give voice to your thoughts, connect with your community!
- Watch DOM public access Channel 56, May 10, 2008 from 1–5pm, either on TV, or streaming live at <http://www.denveropenmedia.org/livestream>
